

The News-Herald.

Office: Hoggard Building, W. Main St.

OCTOBER 6, 1887.

We pay 70 cents for good milling wheat. J. M. ROYD & CO.

Don't fail to see the little Giant Store Cartridge, for sale by T. H. Langley. Exclusive right of Highland county.

For a genuine hand made boot go to the Bee Hive.

Go and see Emma Cox & Sister's nice new line of millinery, notions, etc.

I will pay 70 cents for good wheat at Model City Mills. JAMES T. MCGUIN.

Harry Chaney is visiting his sister, Mrs. Frank H. Jones, of Indianapolis, Indiana.

The latest and most elegant styles are to be found at Emma Cox & Sister's millinery store.

Mr. Murdy Holmes left last Monday morning to attend the Ohio Dental College, Cincinnati.

Miss Anna Oline, of New Vienna, was a guest of Miss Sarah and Mary Scott during the past week.

Boy No. 2 arrived at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Ambrose last Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. C. C. Ridings, of Caldwell, Kansas, has been visiting his mother near Hallowtown since Saturday last.

If you want to see the correct styles and the largest assortment in stiff and soft hats, call at I. A. Feibel's.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Tribble and little daughter, of Bloomington, Ill., are the guests of their cousin, Dr. W. Hoyt.

Don't fail to see the little Giant Store Cartridge, for sale by T. H. Langley. Exclusive right of Highland county.

Mr. J. M. Dumenil, of Pratt, Kansas, has been for the past few days visiting friends and relatives in this city and Lynchburg.

Mr. William Barrow, who has for some time past been in the office of Dr. Duckwall, is now attending Ohio Dental College, Cincinnati.

Dr. Dawson, of Cincinnati, and his niece, Mrs. Dr. Davis, of Ottawa, Kansas, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bell last Sunday.

All kinds of boots and shoes at I. A. Feibel's. He has a first-class heavy boot for winter wear at $3, equal to any $4 boot in the market.

Since Sunday afternoon last at 5 o'clock a nine-and-a-half-pound boy has been making his home at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Nulle.

It is 3,600 miles across the U. S., but only a short distance to Walker's, where you can buy a pair of boots that will last you the rest of the way.

Dr. J. P. Tudor, who has been acting as Bainbridge's dentist for the past several months, will attend Ohio Dental College at Cincinnati this winter.

I will pay the highest market price for wheat. Ware room corner of Main and West streets, opposite foundry. Wm. FAVOR.

Miss Mattie Foster, of Cincinnati, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. A. Nulton, having arrived here Monday night. She came up to attend the Evans-Evans wedding.

This office was the recipient of a handsome invitation to the Grand Celebration of the Inauguration of Water Works at Xenia, which took place last Saturday. Many thanks.

Mr. Frank Morgan, who has been occupying Capt. H. O. Dawson's residence on North High street, has removed into the Carlisle Barrere property on West Walnut street.

Mr. Cyrus Johnson, of Hot Springs, Arkansas, who was called home by the death of his brother and mother near New Vienna, was shaking hands with old friends in this city last week.

Dr. Chas. Hutton, of Tracy City, Tenn., arrived in this city last Saturday for a few days' visit to his parents. The doctor will attend lectures at the Ohio Medical College, Cincinnati, this winter.

The College has begun the year with a brighter outlook than for years past. There is an increase in attendance of about 25 per cent. of the corresponding term of last year. Other boards are expected soon.

Those persons who usually send their orders for underwear to Cincinnati, need do so no longer, as I. A. Feibel has a full line of these goods, from the commonest to the finest silk, at from 30 to 50 per cent. less than the agents will charge.

The Hillsboro people are to be favored this fall by a lecture course composed of the following named persons: Robt. T. Bonnell, of Cincinnati, teacher of the Bible class held in Y. M. C. A. rooms every Saturday afternoon; Rev. Wm. Ranyan, D. D. the popular Preaching Elder of Hillsboro District, Cincinnati Conference; Rev. A. B. Leonard, D. D., who is known by everybody; Rev. J. H. Reed, D. D., pastor of Walnut Hills M. E. Church, Cincinnati, and Rev. J. H. Baylies, D. D., editor of Western Christian Advocate. The first lecture will be given in College Chapel by Rev. Wm. Ranyan, D. D., Thursday, October 18th, subject, "The Woman Thou Gavest Me." This valuable lecture course has been arranged for by W. C. Held, the proceeds of which are to be applied in college improvements. Let the friends of the college use their influence to make this a success in every particular. Tickets will be on sale in a few days. Price of season tickets only one dollar. Single admission 25 cents. Single lecture 10 cents.

Don't fail to see the little Giant Store Cartridge, for sale by T. H. Langley. Exclusive right of Highland county.

For a genuine hand made boot go to the Bee Hive.

Go and see Emma Cox & Sister's nice new line of millinery, notions, etc.

I will pay 70 cents for good wheat at Model City Mills. JAMES T. MCGUIN.

Harry Chaney is visiting his sister, Mrs. Frank H. Jones, of Indianapolis, Indiana.

The latest and most elegant styles are to be found at Emma Cox & Sister's millinery store.

Mr. Murdy Holmes left last Monday morning to attend the Ohio Dental College, Cincinnati.

Miss Anna Oline, of New Vienna, was a guest of Miss Sarah and Mary Scott during the past week.

Boy No. 2 arrived at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Ambrose last Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. C. C. Ridings, of Caldwell, Kansas, has been visiting his mother near Hallowtown since Saturday last.

If you want to see the correct styles and the largest assortment in stiff and soft hats, call at I. A. Feibel's.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Tribble and little daughter, of Bloomington, Ill., are the guests of their cousin, Dr. W. Hoyt.

Don't fail to see the little Giant Store Cartridge, for sale by T. H. Langley. Exclusive right of Highland county.

For a genuine hand made boot go to the Bee Hive.

Don't fail to see the little Giant Store Cartridge, for sale by T. H. Langley. Exclusive right of Highland county.

Thorn's custom boot at the Bee Hive.

Frank Foraker is now clerk at the depot.

Save money by buying your foot-wear at the Bee Hive.

For a first-class boot or shoe go to the Bee Hive Shoe Store.

Pure cedar vinegar always on hand at B. Conard's queensware store.

A large and elegant line of new winter millinery at Emma Cox & Sister's.

Dr. Merston, of Greenfield, was a business visitor to our city last Saturday.

The physicians of town attended the funeral services of Dr. Richards in a body.

Arthur Jenkins has been quite sick for several days with a complication of diseases.

Now is the time to buy your boots and shoes and the Bee Hive is the place to buy them.

For Rent—Part of a house on Vine street to a family of two. Inquire at this office.

Miss Capitola Bugher, of Chillicothe, is the guest of Miss Shoemaker at the Conservatory.

Miss Mattie Brown, of Spiceland, Indiana, is visiting relatives in this city and at Rainboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thompson, of Lovanna, Brown county, are visiting Mr. Mrs. George Fuller.

Miss Nannie Pugsley left last Monday morning for New York, where she will attend school this winter.

Mr. Harry Lefevre left last Monday afternoon for Philadelphia, where he will attend dental college.

The verdict of the people is that the Bee Hive Shoe Store is the place to get the best boot for the least money.

Mr. W. T. Bowers killed a good-sized rattlesnake in his lot in the East End one day last week. It is seldom a serpent of this variety is killed in this vicinity.

A light crowd and a few horses sold last Saturday, and those sold went at low prices. Flock bought 8 and Clark 6, at prices from $35 to $150, only one bringing the latter figure.

From Maysville, Ky., where they were in attendance at the Mannen-Morgan wedding ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Armstrong and Miss Mary will leave for New York City, where they will spend the winter.

Dr. Sigel Roush is now one of the faculty of the Conservatory of Music, having been employed by Prof. McKenzie to deliver a course of lectures upon the Anatomy, Physiology and Hygiene of the Human Voice.

Mrs. W. I. Davis, of Sanders, Ky., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Reuben Lyle, returned home last Saturday morning. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Maggie North, who will make a several week's visit there.

John A. Collins, Esq., is in the growing city of Pueblo, Colorado, this week, taking in the Colorado State Fair, which is held in that city. We will get John's impressions of the Centennial State on his return after inspecting its industries and prospects.

Miss Lenna Carey, who for the past four years has been assisting her grandfather, Benj. Conard, in his store, left last Monday morning in company with her uncle, Cyrus Johnson, for a protracted visit with his family at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

One of the largest cisterns in town is being made at the corner of High and North streets. The contract was let to Messrs. Lash and Jesse Gols, and the cistern will be 60 feet long, 11 1/2 feet wide and 12 feet deep. It will be filled with brick and then thoroughly cemented. The whole cost will be about six hundred dollars.

On next Friday evening after the lesson of the chorus class will be given in the Institute parlors the first monthly lecture of the season. The friends of the Conservatory are all cordially invited and the faculty will endeavor to furnish an interesting and pleasant program for the evening. Several well-selected recitals promise to be an interesting feature of the entertainment.

"The Columbia River and Its Neighbors" is the topic of the lecture by Rev. Louis Albert Banks in the M. E. Church next Monday eve. This lecture is under the auspices of the Young Men's League, and is free to the public and especially the friends and patrons of the League. There will be vocal and instrumental music. The doors will be open at 7 1/2 o'clock.

The Rev. Louis Albert Banks, who lectures next Monday evening at the M. E. Church, under the auspices of the Young Men's League, has recently been transferred from Boston, Mass., to Trinity Church, Cincinnati. He has a high reputation as a lecturer and is highly commended by Dr. Joyce. No charge will be made for admission, the lecture being free to the public.

We're always busy as a B. But customers delight to C. Leave breakfast, dinner, lunch or V. Drop in and buy and save a V. We're everything from A to Z. Our store is full of busy B's. We buy who once a bargain C's. We like competitors to T's. And try to live a life of E's.

Letters representing our sentiments here, but Agnes, and very few ones, represent our superb stock.

T. A. WALKER & CO.,

Large quantity Fertilizer on hand. Want my old customers and new ones to call and get all they want. Don't be afraid, you don't have to chew the Buckeye bag to know what you are buying, as a certain firm says of their goods. JAMES REECE.

For Sale. 4 Chester White Hogs four months old, one male and three females. CHARLES R. MYNRE, Hillsboro, O.

Money to Loan. F. B. Mills, of Wilmington, Ohio, will loan money on farm lands in Highland county, in sums of $2,000 and upwards at 6 per cent. Time 3 to 5 years. Letters answered.

Notice. Drs. Chaney and DeHass have left their book accounts and notes in my hands for collection, and I will be in Pricetown at their office each Friday until Christmas for the purpose of collecting them.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH. Sermon next Sunday evening at St. Mary's Church on Fashion. Text, "Though though clothe thyself with crimson; though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold; in vain shall thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee." Jeremiah iv, 30. Free seats. All invited.

THE PATRONS OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY. The Public Library will be open for the distribution of books on Thursday of this week and also on the regular days, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, from two until five o'clock, until further notice. The room will not be open for reading until after the repairs are completed. By order Board.

A Card. Nancy Jane McClure, wife of T. N. S. McClure, requests me to say through your paper to those friends whose kind services assisted in relieving her cares and in ministering to her wants during her anxiety and distress in the sickness and death of both her husband and son, that they have her sincerest thanks for their many kindnesses in this her sore affliction. J. B. FARIS.

Maunen-Morgan. Last Tuesday evening Mr. Frank Maunen and Miss Bessie Morgan, of Maysville, Ky., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, quite a number of Hillsboro's society people, to whom the couple were well known, being favored with invitations. Those who availed themselves of the invitations were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Armstrong, Mr. Chas. M. Lilley and Misses Mary Armstrong and Lucy Belle Smith, the two latter acting as attendants.

THE NEW PROPRIETOR OF THE HOTEL CARSON. Mr. George S. Reed has retired from the control of the Hotel Carson, and the hotel has been rented to Mr. J. S. Goldtrap, of Hillsboro, a gentleman who has acquired quite an enviable reputation in that place, as a gentlemanly, accommodating and capable landlord.

Death of Dr. S. G. Richards. Dr. S. G. Richards, well known in Hillsboro and community, died very suddenly at his home here about 11 o'clock last Thursday night. For several weeks the Doctor had not been feeling well, but the first intimation of serious illness was discovered by his wife shortly before he died. She was awakened by his heavy breathing and immediately tried to arouse him, but failing in this she hurried to her next door neighbor, Mr. Selph, to procure assistance, but when she returned he had passed away.

Dr. Richards was born in this county in 1831 and graduated at the Starling Medical College at Columbus, Ohio, about 1853. He afterward served as Lieutenant in the 70th Ohio Regiment, under Capt. Summers; was in the battle of Pittsburg Landing and other engagements of some importance in our late war, but was compelled finally to resign on account of ill health. Before coming to Hillsboro he had been a successful practitioner of Medicine in Scioto and Pike counties.

Funeral services took place from his residence at 2 p. m. last Monday. He was buried in the Hillsboro cemetery. The deceased leaves a wife and three children to mourn his sudden death.

At a recent meeting of the medical profession at this place the following resolutions were read and adopted: WHEREAS, It has pleased of All-wise Providence to remove our brother and co-worker, Dr. S. G. Richards, from the scene of his earthly labors; and

Don't fail to see the little Giant Store Cartridge, for sale by T. H. Langley. Exclusive right of Highland county.

Thorn's custom boot at the Bee Hive.

Frank Foraker is now clerk at the depot.

Save money by buying your foot-wear at the Bee Hive.

For a first-class boot or shoe go to the Bee Hive Shoe Store.

Pure cedar vinegar always on hand at B. Conard's queensware store.

A large and elegant line of new winter millinery at Emma Cox & Sister's.

Dr. Merston, of Greenfield, was a business visitor to our city last Saturday.

The physicians of town attended the funeral services of Dr. Richards in a body.

Arthur Jenkins has been quite sick for several days with a complication of diseases.

Now is the time to buy your boots and shoes and the Bee Hive is the place to buy them.

For Rent—Part of a house on Vine street to a family of two. Inquire at this office.

Miss Capitola Bugher, of Chillicothe, is the guest of Miss Shoemaker at the Conservatory.

Miss Mattie Brown, of Spiceland, Indiana, is visiting relatives in this city and at Rainboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thompson, of Lovanna, Brown county, are visiting Mr. Mrs. George Fuller.

Miss Nannie Pugsley left last Monday morning for New York, where she will attend school this winter.

Mr. Harry Lefevre left last Monday afternoon for Philadelphia, where he will attend dental college.

The verdict of the people is that the Bee Hive Shoe Store is the place to get the best boot for the least money.

Mr. W. T. Bowers killed a good-sized rattlesnake in his lot in the East End one day last week. It is seldom a serpent of this variety is killed in this vicinity.

A light crowd and a few horses sold last Saturday, and those sold went at low prices. Flock bought 8 and Clark 6, at prices from $35 to $150, only one bringing the latter figure.

From Maysville, Ky., where they were in attendance at the Mannen-Morgan wedding ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Armstrong and Miss Mary will leave for New York City, where they will spend the winter.

Dr. Sigel Roush is now one of the faculty of the Conservatory of Music, having been employed by Prof. McKenzie to deliver a course of lectures upon the Anatomy, Physiology and Hygiene of the Human Voice.

Mrs. W. I. Davis, of Sanders, Ky., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Reuben Lyle, returned home last Saturday morning. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Maggie North, who will make a several week's visit there.

John A. Collins, Esq., is in the growing city of Pueblo, Colorado, this week, taking in the Colorado State Fair, which is held in that city. We will get John's impressions of the Centennial State on his return after inspecting its industries and prospects.

Miss Lenna Carey, who for the past four years has been assisting her grandfather, Benj. Conard, in his store, left last Monday morning in company with her uncle, Cyrus Johnson, for a protracted visit with his family at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

One of the largest cisterns in town is being made at the corner of High and North streets. The contract was let to Messrs. Lash and Jesse Gols, and the cistern will be 60 feet long, 11 1/2 feet wide and 12 feet deep. It will be filled with brick and then thoroughly cemented. The whole cost will be about six hundred dollars.

On next Friday evening after the lesson of the chorus class will be given in the Institute parlors the first monthly lecture of the season. The friends of the Conservatory are all cordially invited and the faculty will endeavor to furnish an interesting and pleasant program for the evening. Several well-selected recitals promise to be an interesting feature of the entertainment.

"The Columbia River and Its Neighbors" is the topic of the lecture by Rev. Louis Albert Banks in the M. E. Church next Monday eve. This lecture is under the auspices of the Young Men's League, and is free to the public and especially the friends and patrons of the League. There will be vocal and instrumental music. The doors will be open at 7 1/2 o'clock.

The Rev. Louis Albert Banks, who lectures next Monday evening at the M. E. Church, under the auspices of the Young Men's League, has recently been transferred from Boston, Mass., to Trinity Church, Cincinnati. He has a high reputation as a lecturer and is highly commended by Dr. Joyce. No charge will be made for admission, the lecture being free to the public.

We're always busy as a B. But customers delight to C. Leave breakfast, dinner, lunch or V. Drop in and buy and save a V. We're everything from A to Z. Our store is full of busy B's. We buy who once a bargain C's. We like competitors to T's. And try to live a life of E's.

Letters representing our sentiments here, but Agnes, and very few ones, represent our superb stock.

T. A. WALKER & CO.,

Large quantity Fertilizer on hand. Want my old customers and new ones to call and get all they want. Don't be afraid, you don't have to chew the Buckeye bag to know what you are buying, as a certain firm says of their goods. JAMES REECE.

For Sale. 4 Chester White Hogs four months old, one male and three females. CHARLES R. MYNRE, Hillsboro, O.

Money to Loan. F. B. Mills, of Wilmington, Ohio, will loan money on farm lands in Highland county, in sums of $2,000 and upwards at 6 per cent. Time 3 to 5 years. Letters answered.

Notice. Drs. Chaney and DeHass have left their book accounts and notes in my hands for collection, and I will be in Pricetown at their office each Friday until Christmas for the purpose of collecting them.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH. Sermon next Sunday evening at St. Mary's Church on Fashion. Text, "Though though clothe thyself with crimson; though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold; in vain shall thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee." Jeremiah iv, 30. Free seats. All invited.

THE PATRONS OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY. The Public Library will be open for the distribution of books on Thursday of this week and also on the regular days, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, from two until five o'clock, until further notice. The room will not be open for reading until after the repairs are completed. By order Board.

A Card. Nancy Jane McClure, wife of T. N. S. McClure, requests me to say through your paper to those friends whose kind services assisted in relieving her cares and in ministering to her wants during her anxiety and distress in the sickness and death of both her husband and son, that they have her sincerest thanks for their many kindnesses in this her sore affliction. J. B. FARIS.

Maunen-Morgan. Last Tuesday evening Mr. Frank Maunen and Miss Bessie Morgan, of Maysville, Ky., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, quite a number of Hillsboro's society people, to whom the couple were well known, being favored with invitations. Those who availed themselves of the invitations were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Armstrong, Mr. Chas. M. Lilley and Misses Mary Armstrong and Lucy Belle Smith, the two latter acting as attendants.

THE NEW PROPRIETOR OF THE HOTEL CARSON. Mr. George S. Reed has retired from the control of the Hotel Carson, and the hotel has been rented to Mr. J. S. Goldtrap, of Hillsboro, a gentleman who has acquired quite an enviable reputation in that place, as a gentlemanly, accommodating and capable landlord.

Death of Dr. S. G. Richards. Dr. S. G. Richards, well known in Hillsboro and community, died very suddenly at his home here about 11 o'clock last Thursday night. For several weeks the Doctor had not been feeling well, but the first intimation of serious illness was discovered by his wife shortly before he died. She was awakened by his heavy breathing and immediately tried to arouse him, but failing in this she hurried to her next door neighbor, Mr. Selph, to procure assistance, but when she returned he had passed away.

Dr. Richards was born in this county in 1831 and graduated at the Starling Medical College at Columbus, Ohio, about 1853. He afterward served as Lieutenant in the 70th Ohio Regiment, under Capt. Summers; was in the battle of Pittsburg Landing and other engagements of some importance in our late war, but was compelled finally to resign on account of ill health. Before coming to Hillsboro he had been a successful practitioner of Medicine in Scioto and Pike counties.

Funeral services took place from his residence at 2 p. m. last Monday. He was buried in the Hillsboro cemetery. The deceased leaves a wife and three children to mourn his sudden death.

At a recent meeting of the medical profession at this place the following resolutions were read and adopted: WHEREAS, It has pleased of All-wise Providence to remove our brother and co-worker, Dr. S. G. Richards, from the scene of his earthly labors; and

Don't fail to see the little Giant Store Cartridge, for sale by T. H. Langley. Exclusive right of Highland county.

Thorn's custom boot at the Bee Hive.

Frank Foraker is now clerk at the depot.

Save money by buying your foot-wear at the Bee Hive.

For a first-class boot or shoe go to the Bee Hive Shoe Store.

Pure cedar vinegar always on hand at B. Conard's queensware store.

A large and elegant line of new winter millinery at Emma Cox & Sister's.

Dr. Merston, of Greenfield, was a business visitor to our city last Saturday.

The physicians of town attended the funeral services of Dr. Richards in a body.

Arthur Jenkins has been quite sick for several days with a complication of diseases.

Now is the time to buy your boots and shoes and the Bee Hive is the place to buy them.

For Rent—Part of a house on Vine street to a family of two. Inquire at this office.

Miss Capitola Bugher, of Chillicothe, is the guest of Miss Shoemaker at the Conservatory.

Miss Mattie Brown, of Spiceland, Indiana, is visiting relatives in this city and at Rainboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thompson, of Lovanna, Brown county, are visiting Mr. Mrs. George Fuller.

Miss Nannie Pugsley left last Monday morning for New York, where she will attend school this winter.

Mr. Harry Lefevre left last Monday afternoon for Philadelphia, where he will attend dental college.

The verdict of the people is that the Bee Hive Shoe Store is the place to get the best boot for the least money.

Mr. W. T. Bowers killed a good-sized rattlesnake in his lot in the East End one day last week. It is seldom a serpent of this variety is killed in this vicinity.

A light crowd and a few horses sold last Saturday, and those sold went at low prices. Flock bought 8 and Clark 6, at prices from $35 to $150, only one bringing the latter figure.

From Maysville, Ky., where they were in attendance at the Mannen-Morgan wedding ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Armstrong and Miss Mary will leave for New York City, where they will spend the winter.

Dr. Sigel Roush is now one of the faculty of the Conservatory of Music, having been employed by Prof. McKenzie to deliver a course of lectures upon the Anatomy, Physiology and Hygiene of the Human Voice.

Mrs. W. I. Davis, of Sanders, Ky., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Reuben Lyle, returned home last Saturday morning. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Maggie North, who will make a several week's visit there.

John A. Collins, Esq., is in the growing city of Pueblo, Colorado, this week, taking in the Colorado State Fair, which is held in that city. We will get John's impressions of the Centennial State on his return after inspecting its industries and prospects.

Miss Lenna Carey, who for the past four years has been assisting her grandfather, Benj. Conard, in his store, left last Monday morning in company with her uncle, Cyrus Johnson, for a protracted visit with his family at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

One of the largest cisterns in town is being made at the corner of High and North streets. The contract was let to Messrs. Lash and Jesse Gols, and the cistern will be 60 feet long, 11 1/2 feet wide and 12 feet deep. It will be filled with brick and then thoroughly cemented. The whole cost will be about six hundred dollars.

On next Friday evening after the lesson of the chorus class will be given in the Institute parlors the first monthly lecture of the season. The friends of the Conservatory are all cordially invited and the faculty will endeavor to furnish an interesting and pleasant program for the evening. Several well-selected recitals promise to be an interesting feature of the entertainment.

"The Columbia River and Its Neighbors" is the topic of the lecture by Rev. Louis Albert Banks in the M. E. Church next Monday eve. This lecture is under the auspices of the Young Men's League, and is free to the public and especially the friends and patrons of the League. There will be vocal and instrumental music. The doors will be open at 7 1/2 o'clock.

The Rev. Louis Albert Banks, who lectures next Monday evening at the M. E. Church, under the auspices of the Young Men's League, has recently been transferred from Boston, Mass., to Trinity Church, Cincinnati. He has a high reputation as a lecturer and is highly commended by Dr. Joyce. No charge will be made for admission, the lecture being free to the public.

We're always busy as a B. But customers delight to C. Leave breakfast, dinner, lunch or V. Drop in and buy and save a V. We're everything from A to Z. Our store is full of busy B's. We buy who once a bargain C's. We like competitors to T's. And try to live a life of E's.

Letters representing our sentiments here, but Agnes, and very few ones, represent our superb stock.

T. A. WALKER & CO.,

Large quantity Fertilizer on hand. Want my old customers and new ones to call and get all they want. Don't be afraid, you don't have to chew the Buckeye bag to know what you are buying, as a certain firm says of their goods. JAMES REECE.

For Sale. 4 Chester White Hogs four months old, one male and three females. CHARLES R. MYNRE, Hillsboro, O.

Money to Loan. F. B. Mills, of Wilmington, Ohio, will loan money on farm lands in Highland county, in sums of $2,000 and upwards at 6 per cent. Time 3 to 5 years. Letters answered.

Notice. Drs. Chaney and DeHass have left their book accounts and notes in my hands for collection, and I will be in Pricetown at their office each Friday until Christmas for the purpose of collecting them.